Directions:
Diagram the structure of the following arguments by referring to the numbered statements.

1. (1) Cranberry juice prevents kidney infections inasmuch as (2) persons who drink large amounts do not get many kidney infections.

2. (1) I know that God exists because (2) the world is well ordered by scientific law, and (3) this order is probably not due to chance alone.

3. (1) Some students absent today are unprepared for this quiz, since (2) the law of averages dictates that only 10% of students are absent due to illness, and (3) more than 10% are absent.

4. (1) John didn’t get much sleep last night. (2) He has dark circles under his eyes, and (3) he looks tired.

5. (1) Joe could have heart problems in the future. (2) He has creased earlobes and a depressed sternum and (3) these characteristics have been associated with heart attacks.