

Phil. 103: Introduction to Logic

Quiz: Syllogistic Terminology

Fall 2002 ©2002 OPL

Directions: Match the description in Column 2 with the most appropriate logical term in Column 1.

Column 1	Column 2
----- major term	1. subject term of the conclusion
----- minor term	2. predicate term of the conclusion
----- middle term	3. indicates the position of the middle term in the premisses
----- mood	4. premiss containing the middle term
----- major premiss	5. premiss containing the minor term
----- minor premiss	6. premiss containing the major term
----- standard form	7. deductive argument where the conclusion follows from two premisses
----- standard order	8. major premiss stated first, minor premiss second, and conclusion third
----- figure	9. term appearing in both premisses
----- syllogism	10. all statements are standard form categorical propositions
	11. names of major premiss, minor premiss, and conclusion written as a sequence of three letters
	12. premiss containing the middle term

NAME -----